

INTRODUCTION

CPL Foundation brings to you its second edition of the bi-monthly newsletter. CPL Foundation has had the privilege of supporting various activities and programs.

In this edition, we feature activities that were implemented in the months of May and June which align with the Foundation's four core areas of interests.

CPL FOUNDATION SUPPORTS MENSTRUAL HEALTH OUTREACH

Picture: CEO of Queenpads Products Limited, Ms Anne-Shirley Korave, addressing students at Hagen United Primary School in Mt Hagen, Western Highlands Province.

CPL Foundation partnered with the Queenpads team to continue delivering menstrual health and hygiene awareness across the country.

CPL Foundation coordinator, Regil Wanwanji, along with two representatives from the Queenpads team had visited Mt Hagen for a two-day awareness session. It was held on May 11-12.

The first day began with staff training at the City Pharmacy Hagen which was followed by visits to the Hagen United Primary School, Holy Trinity Teachers College and St Mary's Primary School. A total of 740 female students were reached during the awareness drive.

Picture: CPL Foundation officers signing up members of the public at CPL Group's Stop & Shop Harbor City.

CPL FOUNDATION KICK-STARTS PRIDE OF PNG AWARDS FOR WOMEN EMPOWERMENT 2022 SIGN-UP SESSIONS

CPL Foundation is proud to kick-start sign up sessions for the Pride of PNG Awards for Women's Empowerment 2022.

The Awards, a community initiative of the CPL Group is a means of recognizing the tireless efforts of women making a positive difference in their communities. The sessions saw our team inform and enlist nominations from interested members of the public. The public was also advised to drop completed forms in the entry bins provided at the SNS and City Pharmacy outlets nationwide.

CPL FOUNDATION MAINTAINS SUPPORT TO POPNG ALUMNI

Ms. Tessie Soi is a past winner for the Pride of PNG Awards under the category for Care and Compassion. Since her win in 2012, CPL Foundation has continued to support her work through charitable donations.

In light of the Pride of PNG Awards for 2022, CPL Foundation had the pleasure of interviewing Ms. Soi about the progress of her work since her win. This was followed by a donation of stationery supplies made to her NGO, Friends Foundation Incorporated.

Picture: (L to R) Ms Soi and Friends Foundation representative receiving a donation of stationeries from CPL Foundation Coordinator Regil Wanwanji.

Picture: Hardware Haus Pom branch manager, Mr Edward Narayan (third from left) with Professor Lohi Matainaho (second from right) flanked by staff from Hardware Haus Port Moresby and the staff of the School of Science and Technology of PAU.

CPL FOUNDATION DONATES 150 CHAIRS TO PACIFIC ADVENTIST UNIVERSITY

CPL Foundation donated 150 plastic chairs to the School of Science and Technology of the Pacific Adventist University (PAU). The chairs were funded by the CPL Foundation and supplied by Hardware Haus Limited. The chairs would assist students of the School with their educational, community and spiritual activities on campus.

On hand to receive the donation was Vice Chancellor of PAU, Professor Lohi Matainaho, as well as members from the School of Science and Technology.

This donation strengthens the current ties between CPL Group and Pacific Adventist University and paves the way to a long-term relationship between both parties.

GINIGOADA RECEIVES DONATION OF K70,000 FROM CPL FOUNDATION

CPL Foundation recently made a donation of K70,000 to Ginigoada Foundation Incorporated. CPL Foundation has been a major sponsor of GFI since 2015. Ginigoada Foundation, since starting in 2002, has been assisting disadvantaged youths develop financial literacy skills and on-the-job training.

“ One of our major objectives is to help support education initiatives of impact in PNG. This programme has graduated over 30,000 students, and we are very proud,” said Navin Raju- Group CEO.

Picture: Mr Navin Raju (CPL Group CEO) and CPL Foundation Coordinator, Ms Regil Wanwanji flanked by Mr Philip Priestley and Management team of Ginigoada Foundation

CPL FOUNDATION RENEWS LONG-TIME SPONSORSHIP OF CPL REBELS NETBALL CLUB

CPL Foundation recently renewed support to the CPL Rebels Netball Club and the sponsorship is now under CPL Foundation. The sponsorship deal covers equipment and administrative costs of the community sports club. The long-time partnership between CPL Group as well as the City Pharmacy Rebels has spanned over 25 years.

The Foundation believes in building capacity using integral development in the bottom up approach. This ensures a thriving sports culture. The continuous support provided to PNG athletes contributes toward strengthening the sporting industry as well as empowering women in sports.

Picture: (L to R) Mr Ajay Patel, CPL Group’s Head of Special Projects, and Mrs Oti Lasagavibau- Head Coach of the CPL Rebels flanked by members of the netball team and CPL Foundation.

CPL GROUP TEAM AND BUK BILONG PIKININI COMMEMORATES WORLD HAND HYGIENE DAY

Picture: City Pharmacy and CPL Foundation team members with representatives and students from the Buk bilong Pikinini Library, UPNG

To commemorate the World Hand Hygiene Day, team members from CPL Foundation and City Pharmacy had the pleasure of hosting a hand hygiene awareness session at the Buk Bilong Pikinini Library at the UPNG campus in early May. The theme for the event was 'Unite for safety. Clean your hands.'

The session is one of several health and hygiene awareness programs and activities conducted by CPL Foundation and City Pharmacy and delivered to the children from the Buk Bilong Pikinini community library.

CPL FOUNDATION CONTINUES TO SUPPORT AND EXTEND FARMER NETWORK ACROSS RURAL PNG

Picture: Head of Special projects Ajay Patel addressing the crowd at the recent Mt Wilhelm Agriculture and Culture Show

Our Head of Special Projects, Ajay Patel, travelled to the Gembogl, Simbu Province for the inaugural Mt Wilhelm Agriculture and Culture show. The Show was held for two days from the 6th to 8th of April, and provides a platform for the rich and vibrant food and culture of this part of the Highlands region. Hosted by Munduna Teiweh Initiatives (MTI), CPL Group was invited through the CPL Foundation.

"We want this partnership to last for a long time. We are not just here for a month or a year. CPL Group will be with you for 15-20 years. This is the way we're going to make PNG grow, it is through the garden," said Mr Patel.

DONATION TO SCHOOL'S BREAKFAST CLUB

Picture: Head of Special Projects Ajay Patel flanked by students from the Jubilee Secondary School with food donations for their breakfast club

We were able to assist the Jubilee Secondary School with food donations for their breakfast club.

The donated items included fruit, other food rations and two sets of first aid kits. On hand to donate the items was Head of Special Projects, Ajay Patel.

The Breakfast Club is an initiative by the Jubilee Secondary School. It was created to cater breakfast meals for underprivileged students ensuring that they eat the most important meal of the day.

It is one of CPL Foundation's key objectives to enhance education in PNG, and meals are essential for the nourishment and development of the mind and body.